Peoples Ponderings

This weekend I will be attending Adoremus—the National Eucharistic Congress, in Liverpool. This will be a gathering of nearly 10,000 people to learn more about the Eucharist and Adoration. The main event takes place on Saturday with the key note speaker being Bishop Robert Barron from the United States. I have been lucky enough to hear him speak before during my time at seminary and I am sure that he will give all those attending plenty to think about. The great danger with such events is that they happen and then nothing changes in our parishes. The Diocese is preparing a day to look at the legacy of Adoremus in October, which we will advertise soon. One of my hopes in the parish has been to run more catechetical programmes and I am delighted that Seminarian Liam Carpenter who is based at St Bernadette's is going to run the Catholicism Course for our parishes starting on Thursday 11th October. It will use the superb DVD series produced by Bishop Robert Barron and a chance for Questions and Answers. I would encourage people to attend this event, as it looks at all the areas of our Catholic Faith, it would also be good for those thinking about joining the Catholic Church.

Kerala floods: Second Collection

We will have a second collection at all Masses to support the aid efforts in Kerala. Please continue to pray for all those who have been affected.

RCIA

Diocesan Day of Renewal – Saturday 6th October

The day will include workshops & seminars, Holy Mass, praise and time for prayer. There will be activities for children of all ages. Entry is free and there will be a collection during the day to cover the costs of the day. Booking is essential so please call contact the parish office Tel 01472 342301 or holytrinitygci@gmail.com as soon as possible to avoid disappointment.*
