Pope Francis 'Tweet of the Week':

'What is worse: the recognizable demon that pushes you to sin so that you feel ashamed, or the well-mannered demon that lives within you and possesses you with the spirit of worldliness?'

Peoples Ponderings

After the opening greeting, we move into the penitential act, the time when we acknowledge our sin. None of us like to admit that we are sinners, I have had members of my family say - I don't need confession, I don't sin! Well safe to say, after a short examination of conscience it became clear that they did!

Bishop Robert Barron used a simple way of looking at sin; when we are driving away from the Sun, our car window looks spotless, yet the minute we turn towards the sun, all the marks appear, and we realise it needs a good clean. So too with sin, when we turn away from the light, turn away from God - everything looks fine. It is only when we approach him that we realise that we are not perfect at all. That is why the Kyrie is so powerful - it is acknowledging our need for God's help - Lord have mercy on me!

As Catholics we don't claim to be perfect, we instead acknowledge that we are sinners who need God's mercy.

Thank you to all those who donated and supported this event. It raised £270.30, which will go to help local MacMillan Nurses.

Data Protection Regulations

Due to Data Protection regulations we can only include names of the sick in The Reminder when permission has been given by them. It may also be the case that we cannot publish Mass Intentions on-line for those who are alive unless we have their express permission. Fr Neil is considering doing a Parish Census in the coming months which will include a section where you can give permission for your name to be published in The Reminder and on-line.
