Pope Francis 'Tweet of the Week':

'Jesus asks us to produce just one work of art, which is possible for everyone: that of our own life.'

Deacon Bernard Croft RIP

Last Sunday Deacon Bernard passed away at Lindsey Lodge. At this time, it is important that we pray for the Repose of his Soul and for the Lord to strengthen and comfort his family, especially his wife Maureen. Bernard has played a vital role in the life of the Parish at Holy Souls and in the Deanery. For 21 of those years he was a permanent deacon, so has baptised, married, buried and visited so many people during that time. I know many people appreciated his visits when they or a loved one was in hospital. Nearly every family or person I have spoken to, has known Bernard.

He was very much at peace in the last few weeks and his calmness and faith was a great inspiration to me. He was someone who helped me when I was here as a student and for the past 18 months as Parish Priest. Bernard will be sorely missed by us all. May he rest in Peace. Amen

Funeral arrangements - Deacon Bernard

Bernard will be received into Church on Sunday 3rd March at 7.30 pm. The Requiem Mass will take place on Monday 4th March at 12 noon. The family have requested that Canon John Cahill celebrates the Requiem Mass; this is very fitting as Deacon Bernard worked alongside Canon John for many years. Canon Eddy Jarosz will receive him into Church on the Sunday evening.

Stained Glass window - Deacon Bernard

In the Church we have many beautiful stained-glass windows, with some marking the significant roles that parish priests have played. It is safe to say that Deacon Bernard has, over the years, played a more significant role than any of the many great parish priests of this Parish. So, with this in mind, I will be looking to have a stained-glass window installed in his honour. The aim will be to reflect on his name with an image of St Bernard, and his role as a Deacon and trainer of Altar servers - with an image of St Stephen. If you wish to donate towards the window it would be most welcome, and if we have any money left over it will be given to Lindsey Lodge.

Blessed Cardinal John Henry Newman

Blessed Cardinal John Henry Newman, one of the most prominent figures in British Catholicism, is to be made a Saint after Pope Francis approved a miracle attributed to him. Newman, a theologian and scholar, who was one of the highest profile Anglicans to convert to Catholicism during the Victorian era, will be Britain's first Saint since 1976. Pope Benedict XVI beatified Newman during the papal visit to Britain in 2010 after ascribing a first miracle to the clergyman. Pope Francis has now credited Newman with a second miracle, clearing the way for him to be declared a Saint. The purported miracle involved the recovery of a pregnant American from a life-threatening illness. The Church claims the recovery had no scientific explanation and attributed it to Newman's intercession. "An expectant mother was suffering from unstoppable internal bleeding which threatened the life of her child in the womb," the Diocese of Westminster said on its website. "She had long been a devotee of Blessed John Henry, and in prayer she directly and explicitly invoked Newman's intercession to stop the bleeding. The miraculous healing was immediate, complete, and permanent." No date has yet been announced for a Sainthood ceremony but it is expected to be in the autumn.

- The next sheet will be given out this Sunday after Mass and completed sheets can be handed in at the same time.
