Peoples Ponderings

This Thursday, as well as being the day that people will receive the Sacrament of Confirmation, is the Feast Day of St Norbert. The Norbertines played a vital role in this area after the reformation. The return of the White Canons to England is the responsibility of two of the great abbeys of the Norbertine order; the abbey of Tongerlo in Belgium and the abbey of Frigolet in France. At the request of local Catholics, the abbot of Tongerlo dispatched Fr Martin Geudens to Crowle in 1872. This mission soon grew and attracted the first English vocations to the Norbertines since the Reformation. The Tongerlo Canons established parishes at Spalding (1875), Stainforth (1931), Moorends (1937) and Holbeach (1956) as well as the Chapel of Ease at Luddington (1877). So we thank God for all the work done by the White Canons and seek the intercession of St Norbert as we strive to continue that work today.

'You will never enjoy the sweetness of quiet prayer unless you shut your mind to all worldly desires and temporal affairs' St Norbert
