Pope Francis 'Tweet of the Week':

'Often we forget the Lord and deal with other gods: money, vanity, pride. Let us ask for the grace to understand when our heart begins to slide into worldliness. God's grace and love will stop us if we ask in prayer.'

Please pray for:

Eileen Niland and all those who have died recently, may they rest in peace; for their families at this difficult time; for those whose anniversaries occur at this time; for all who are sick and house-bound.

The Pope's Prayer Intention for February 2020.

Universal prayer intention - listen to the Migrants' Cries: we pray that the cries of our migrant brothers and sisters, victims of criminal trafficking, may be heard and considered.

Please join us in the Parish Hall for tea and coffee after the 9.00 am Sunday Mass

The Canon Comments

Jesus is the completion of the Law of God given to Israel through Moses. He has come not to sweep it away but to perfect it. In this part of the Sermon on the Mount Matthew has gathered six instances (four this week and two next Sunday) of the ways in which Jesus brings the Law to perfection. The first factor to notice however, is that Jesus does not hesitate to adjust the divine Law on his own authority, for he too has divine authority. Each correction begins with a statement of the old Law and boldly goes on, "But I say this to you..."

Each of the corrections has its own character. The first is about enmity, the sixth about love. About enmity, it is not enough merely to forego violent injury; we must expel enmity from our hearts, positively seeking reconciliation, whether the offence is our fault or not. About lust, it is similarly not enough to forego acts of lust; we must not harbour such thoughts in our hearts. About divorce, the easy toleration of divorce in the Jewish Law is swept away, and Jesus uncompromisingly calls it fornication. About truth, it is not enough to keep a legal oath; we must be people whose every word can be relied upon. These are Jesus' demanding standards. (HW). Canon Geoffrey

Parish Mission Prayer

*Holy Father, great God of love and mercy,
 You have surrendered everything for love of us.
 May we learn to surrender everything for love of You. Fill us with Your Holy Spirit that we may do Your will and not our own.
 Help us to love you above all things and to love Your people the way You have commanded us.
 Quiet our minds and hearts that we may be open to the gift of your truth, and grant that our Parish Mission may be:
 a time of Grace for all,
 a time of growth for the young,
 a time of refreshment for the old,
 a time of renewal for families,
 a time of healing for the broken,
 a time of joy for the sorrowing,
 a time of challenge for the complacent,
 a time of forgiveness for the sinner,
 a time of strength for the holy,
 a time of homecoming for all who have been away.
 We beg you these things, Holy Father, in Jesus' name.
 Amen.*

Advice re concerns about the Coronavirus

- ◆ Covering one's mouth and nose while sneezing or coughing, and regular washing of hands.
- ◆ If a parishioner feels uncomfortable, for the moment, about shaking hands at the Sign of Peace, then they could bow to the other person and say: 'Peace be with you'.
- ◆ If a parishioner feels uncomfortable, for the moment, about receiving from the chalice, then they could refrain from doing so.

Hospital Visits

Canon Geoffrey and Fr Liam would like to remind all parishioners to inform them when they, or a relative, has been admitted to hospital. This is most important as they no longer have access to any hospital list. There have been a couple of incidents recently when they have been unaware of people in hospital and were unable to administer the Sacraments. They need the patients and/or relatives permission to visit.

Money Matters:

9th February
 Loose plate £293.31
 Envelopes £136.50
