Canon Matthew's Catechism
Prayer as Covenant

Where does our prayer come from? According to the Scriptures, it is the whole person who prays. But Scripture says that prayer comes from our hearts. This is said in Scripture more than a thousand times. If therefore, our heart is far from God, our prayer is in vain. (CCC 2562). The heart is the inner core of our being, the place to which we withdraw. When Jesus talks about going to our private room to pray, he is really talking about retreating into our innermost depths, our heart to pray. Prayer is a covenant between man and God, in other words, a mutual agreement or promise between God and man. (CCC2563).

In your charity please pray for

John Smith and all who have died recently, may they rest in peace. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen. Please pray for their families at this difficult time; for those whose anniversaries occur at this time; for all who are sick and housebound and those who have no family to support them.
