Message from Canon Matthew

Dear Parishioners

We now enter Holy Week, arguably the most sacred time of the Church's year. Please do try to attend some at least of the Holy Week liturgies. Perhaps even consider making a pilgrimage to our Cathedral in Nottingham for the Chrism Mass at 11.30 am on Wednesday, along with all the priests of the diocese. At this ceremony the Bishop solemnly consecrates the holy oils for use in the sacraments for the following year.

Please also note the extra times of confessions during the week in each church. I express my gratitude for the visiting priests who have given up their time to come and hear confessions for us. Have a very happy and holy Easter when it comes.

God bless you all,

Canon Matthew.

In your charity please pray for Maria Helena Horodecki all who have died recently, may they rest in peace. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen. Please pray for their families at this difficult time; for those whose anniversaries occur at this time; for all who are sick and housebound and those who have no family to support them.

Weekly Collection Envelopes are now ready to be collected

Nottingham Cathedral

has received a £1.69M grant from The National Lottery Heritage Fund to restore the breathtaking original vision of architect A W N Pugin. Restoring Pugin will revive the Cathedral's east end, and open up this heritage gem to over 20,000 people across our Cathedral city and diocese. New tech, community activities, educational programmes, and even a video game (!) are all on the way. Read more on the diocesan website (www.dioceseofnottingham.uk/news) and watch the announcement video on YouTube (www.youtube.com/@NottsDiocese). Please share this great news widely!

Caritas Social Action Network (CSAN)

has recently launched a lived experience survey to better understand the impact of the two-child benefit cap on Catholic families in England and Wales and to explore how parishes are supporting families in need. The responses will contribute to a short report, and insights will inform advocacy work to support families affected by the cap, as well as other financial hardship. To complete the survey, please visit: www.csan.org.uk/news/familysurvey/ before the end of April.

Easter Offering Envelopes

Please remember that the Easter offering goes to the Parish Priest as he does not receive a salary from the Church. Envelopes are now available at the back of Church.
