Catechism:

The Veneration of Sacred Images

The Book of Deuteronomy strictly forbade the creation of an image of God or any figure (Deut 4:15-16). Nevertheless, the Old Testament did permit the creation of images which pointed towards the salvation to come in Christ, such as the cherubim in the Holy of Holies and the bronze serpent of Moses. In the eighth century there arose the Iconoclast Controversy in which the Church was split between those who were in favour of sacred images in churches and those against based on the Old Testament prohibition. The seventh ecumenical Council at Nicaea (787) justified the veneration of icons (Greek word for images) of Christ, the angels and saints. It argued that by becoming incarnate, Jesus Christ had revealed the hidden face of God, and that now it was possible to use sacred images in worship. The Christian veneration of images is not contrary to the first commandment, which forbids idols. This is because the honour rendered to an image passes to the one represented: "Whoever venerates an image venerates the person portrayed in it." The honour paid to sacred images is respectful veneration, not adoration, which is due to God alone. (See Catechism paras 2129-2132).

In your charity please pray for all who have died recently, may they rest in peace. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen. Please pray for their families at this difficult time; for those whose anniversaries occur at this time; for all who are sick and housebound and those who have no family to support them.

Second Collection this weekend

Sea Sunday - 13th July 2024

The Church celebrates Sea Sunday, a day for people to come together to pray for seafarers and fishers, and thank them for the vital role they play in all of our lives; praying also for the work of Stella Maris, which supports the port chaplaincies (in our diocese, at Grimsby, Immingham and Trent ports; Boston port; and Sutton Bridge port). A second collection will be taken up at all Masses this weekend or you can donate online at www.stellamaris.org.uk/donate. Thank you.

Livestreaming of Masses - St Bernadette's Church

Livestreamed services have now begun with the Sunday 11:30 am Mass at St Bernadette's being livestreamed each week. During filming a fixed view of the Altar and Sanctuary will be visible, and also the backs of people occupying the seats on the front five rows - closest to the central aisle.

The livestream feed will be censored to respect your privacy at moments during services such as communion and the children's liturgy, when individuals are at the front of the Church. Participants who will be visible in the Sanctuary during a livestreamed service includes Clergy, Altar servers, Readers, and Eucharistic Ministers so it is important that consent to be filmed/withdrawing consent is obtained. Can parishioners in these roles please return your form to St Bernadette's Presbytery as soon as possible. This will help in our future planning of livestreamed and non-livestreamed services from this weekend.

The Pope's Prayer Intention - July 2025

For formation in discernment. Let us pray that we might again learn how to discern, to know how to choose paths of life and reject everything that leads us away from Christ and the Gospel.
