Sts Martha, Mary and Lazarus - 29th July

This feast in honour of Martha, Mary and Lazarus of Bethany is now celebrated on the octave day, the eighth day of the feast of St Mary Magdalene. It is fortunate that all three intimate friends of Jesus, Martha, Mary and Lazarus, are honoured together now in a common feast, thanks to the liturgical innovation of our late and dearly loved Pope Francis. The Church's tradition emphasizes that Martha served Jesus and his disciples by offering them hospitality. She is therefore seen as an example of the active, working Christian, living in the world. She is also the patron of innkeepers and all who work in the hospitality industry. Jesus mildly rebuked Martha for not being like her sister, and being more attentive to his teachings, instead of being so busy. St Lazarus was raised from the dead, as a foretaste of the divine power which would break forth at the Resurrection. Unfortunately, he would one day die once more, to sleep the sleep of peace, and rise again at the end of time. In the office of readings St Augustine says:

"Our Lord's words to Martha teach us that though we labour among the many distractions of the world, we should have but one goal. For we are but travellers on a journey without as yet a fixed abode; we are on our way, not yet in our native land; we are in a state of longing, not yet of enjoyment. But let us continue on our way, and continue without sloth or respite, so that we may ultimately arrive at our destination."

In your charity please pray for

Teresa Mead and all who have died recently, may they rest in peace. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen. Please pray for their families at this difficult time; for those whose anniversaries occur at this time; for all who are sick and house-bound and those who have no family to support them.

Alpha is returning to St Mary's Church, Brigg from Wednesday 24th September 2025

What is Alpha? Over ten weekly sessions Alpha will explore the basics of the Christian faith. Each session looks at a different question around faith and the talks are designed to create conversation in small groups afterwards. During the evening a meal is shared, followed by a video we watch together, and then finally a discussion. Participants are free to join in, or just listen - it's entirely up to you! Please ring the parish office on 01652 652221 or email briggandbartonrc@dioceseofnottingham.uk to register. All welcome.
