Interested in people and their stories?

Our parish is working with Caritas, the Diocese's social action agency, to develop various mission initiatives – and you can play a part in them all.

- A community drop-in at Holy Souls' Parish Hall. It is planned to open up a 'place of welcome' once a week to parishioners and residents in the neighbourhood and offer a hot meal, friendship and practical support.
- Experiencing each other's cultures. Our parish is rich with music, arts, cuisine and stories from all over the world, including the story of our Lincolnshire Martyrs. We are probably the most diverse community gathering in North Lincolnshire and can help bring different communities together.
- North Lincolnshire Stories. Recording the stories of the people and communities who have migrated to the area since the nineteenth century and made this area their home. We are also supporting an exhibition being planned by North Lincolnshire Museum about the history of Frodingham Road and Oswald Road area of Scunthorpe.

All these initiatives are in the earliest stages of planning. Please share your ideas – contact Janice Moran or Canon Matthew to find out more. Alternatively you can email: stbernadettesashby@dioceseofnottingham.uk
