St Benedict - Feast Day 11th July

We celebrate St Benedict's feast day, not on the date of his death which falls in Lent, but on the date of the translation of his relics to Fleury in France in the seventh century.

St Benedict is known as the Father of Western monasticism, because it is under his influence that monasticism really took hold in Western Europe.

In 1966, because of the huge influence he has had on our continent, he was named patron of Europe.

Benedict was born at Nursia, Italy, and after completing his studies in Rome, at about the age of twenty, he left the world behind to become a monk.

After experimenting with various forms of monastic life, he spent three years at Subiaco, living as a hermit. He attracted followers and soon had a community of monks under his direction. Benedict moved South to Montecassino, because of the hostility of a local priest. There he founded a monastery, as he put it "a school for the service of the Lord." He composed the famous Rule of St Benedict, which ultimately became the standard rule of life for all monasteries in the Western Church. His motto was "Ora et labora" (pray and work) and his insignia is a plough and a cross. St Benedict placed great emphasis on personal love of Christ, humility and prudence. When his last hour approached, he was carried to the abbey church, where he expired whilst praying. Benedict successfully made the transition from being a hermit to the communal life of a monastery, using the wise principles contained in his rule.

An excerpt from the Rule of St Benedict states that the monk should "put Christ before all else" and secondly, follow Christ "by the guidance of the gospel." These instructions are valid not only for the monk, but for all Christians.

In your charity, please pray for

Patrick O'Connor, Vincent Farrell, Nora Bond and all those who have died recently, may they rest in peace.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Please pray for their families at this difficult time; for those whose anniversaries occur at this time; for all who are sick and housebound and those who have no family to support them.

First Holy Communion

Congratulations to the candidates from St Bernadette's Church, who received their First Holy Communion this week-end. Please keep in your prayers all our children throughout the parish who have received their First Holy Communion this summer.

CAFOD-DEC Venezuela Earthquake Appeal

Can you help our neighbours affected by the 24th June earthquakes in Venezuela. The damage is severe but the full extent of the casualties is only beginning to emerge. We are pledging an initial £100,000 to support our trusted church partners - Caritas Venezuela and Catholic Relief Services - who are supporting people who have lost their homes. Church buildings have been opened as safe shelters and our partners are providing safe water and other hygiene services, distributing food and shelter provision. CAFOD needs your support to help more survivors. Please donate to the CAFOD-DEC Venezuela Earthquake Appeal today at cafod.org.uk/Venezuela or call 03009 990030 or scan the QR code below. Your donation will provide essential supplies and help families rebuild their lives. Please keep our neighbours in Venezuela in your prayers
