

First Reading

Ecclesiastes 1:2; 2:21-23
 Vanity of vanities, the Preacher says. Vanity of vanities. All is vanity! For so it is that a man who has laboured wisely, skilfully and successfully must leave what is his own to someone who has not toiled for it at all. This, too, is vanity and great injustice; for what does he gain for all the toil and strain that he has undergone under the sun? What of all his laborious days, his cares of office, his restless nights? This, too, is vanity. The Word of the Lord.

Ps: 89:3-6.12-14.17

[R]: O Lord, you have been our refuge from one generation to the next.

Second Reading

Colossians 3:1-5.9-11
 Since you have been brought back to true life with Christ, you must look for the things that are in heaven, where Christ is, sitting at God's right hand. Let your thoughts be on heavenly things, not on the things that are on the earth, because you have died, and now the life you have is hidden with Christ in God. But when Christ is revealed - and he is your life - you too will be revealed in all your glory with him. That is why you must kill everything in you that belongs only to earthly life: fornication, impurity, guilty passion, evil desires and especially greed, which is the same thing as worshipping a false god; and never tell each other lies. You have stripped off your old behaviour with your old self, and you have put on a new self which will progress towards true knowledge the more it is renewed in the image of its creator; and in that image there is no room for distinction between Greek and Jew, between the circumcised or the uncircumcised, or between barbarian and Scythian, slave and free man. There is only Christ: he is everything and he is in everything.

The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, Alleluia. Your word is truth, O Lord, consecrate us in the truth. Alleluia.

Gospel Reading

Luke 12:13-21
 A man in the crowd said to Jesus, 'Master, tell my brother to give me a share of our inheritance.' 'My friend,' he replied, 'who appointed me your judge, or the arbitrator of your claims?' Then he said to them, 'Watch, and be on your guard against avarice of any kind, for a man's life is not made secure by what he owns, even when he has more than he needs.' Then he told them a parable: 'There was once a rich man who, having had a good harvest from his land, thought to himself, "What am I to do? I have not enough room to store my crops." Then he said, "This is what I will do; I will pull down my barns and build bigger ones, and store all my grain and my goods in them, and I will say to my soul: My soul, you have plenty of good things laid by for many years to come; take things easy, eat, drink, have a good time." But God said to him, "Fool! This very night the demand will be made for your soul; and this hoard of yours, whose will it be then?" So it is when a man stores up treasure for himself in place of making himself rich in the sight of God.' The Gospel of the Lord.

Mystery of Faith: When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

Nostalgia

It was 20 years ago this month that Fr Eddy came to Holy Souls as a newly ordained priest to begin his ministry. Does anyone have any parish reminders from August 1993 at home? Fr Eddy would be curious to read them.

An Invitation

The Sikh community are having a celebration of the birth of Prince George of Cambridge on Sunday 11th August at the Guru Nanak Temple on Frodingham Road. The formal part of the celebration, to be attended by the Mayor of North Lincolnshire, will be between 10.30 am and approximately 11.15 am but food and drink will be available until about 1.00 pm. They are particularly keen to invite people of different religions to share in the celebration. Why not consider going along sometime after Mass next Sunday morning?

Youth 2000 Summer Festival at Walsingham

The course builds firm foundations in faith and knowledge, nurtures confidence, and develops practical skills. It will take place over six Saturdays between October 2013 and March 2014 with each session lasting between 10.00 am and 3.00 pm. If this is something that you are interested in please ask Fr Eddy for a registration form or download one from the parish web site. The cost of £50 will be paid by the parish if the participant is willing to be involved in parish life as a catechist.
