

Readings for 24th Sunday of Ordinary Time

First Reading

Exodus 32:7-11.13-14

The Lord spoke to Moses, Go down now, because your people whom you brought out of Egypt have apostatised. They have been quick to leave the way I marked out for them; they have made themselves a calf of molten metal and have worshipped it and offered it sacrifice. Here is your God, Israel, they have cried, who brought you up from the land of Egypt! I can see how headstrong these people are! Leave me, now, my wrath shall blaze out against them and devour them; of you, however, I will make a great nation. But Moses pleaded with the Lord his God. Lord, he said, why should your wrath blaze out against this people of yours whom you brought out of the land of Egypt with arm outstretched and mighty hand? Remember Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, your servants to whom by your own self you swore and made this promise: I will make your offspring as many as the stars of heaven, and all this land which I promised I will give to your descendants, and it shall be their heritage for ever. So the Lord relented and did not bring on his people the disaster he had threatened. The Word of the Lord.

Ps.: 50:3-4.12-13.17.19

[R]: I will leave this place and go to my Father.

Second Reading

1 Timothy 1:12-17

I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who has given me strength, and who judged me faithful enough to call into his service even though I used to be a blasphemer and did all I could to injure and discredit the faith. Mercy, however, was shown me, because until I became a believer I had been acting in ignorance; and the grace of our Lord filled me with faith and with the love that is in Christ Jesus. Here is a saying that you can rely on and nobody should doubt: that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. I myself am the greatest of them; and if mercy has been shown to me, it is because Jesus Christ meant to make me the greatest evidence of his inexhaustible patience for all the other people who would later have to trust in him to come to eternal life. To the eternal King, the undying, invisible and only God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen. The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, Alleluia. May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our mind, so that we can see what hope His call holds for us. Alleluia.

Gospel Reading

Luke 15:1-10

The tax collectors and the sinners were all seeking the company of Jesus to hear what he had to say, and the Pharisees and the scribes complained. 'This man' they said 'welcomes sinners and eats with them.' So he spoke this parable to them: 'What man among you with a hundred sheep, losing one, would not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and go after the missing one till he found it? And when he found it, would he not joyfully take it on his shoulders and then, when he got home, call together his friends and neighbours? "Rejoice with me," he would say "I have found my sheep that was lost." In the same way, I tell you, there will be more rejoicing in heaven over one repentant sinner than over ninety-nine virtuous men who have no need of repentance. 'Or again, what woman with ten drachmas would not, if she lost one, light a lamp and sweep out the house and search thoroughly till she found it? And then, when she had found it, call together her friends and neighbours? "Rejoice with me," she would say "I have found the drachma I lost." In the same way, I tell you, there is rejoicing among the angels of God over one repentant sinner.' The Gospel of the Lord.

Mystery of Faith: When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

This Week

Home Mission Sunday

Please pick up a leaflet from the back of Church and reflect on the theme of outreach and welcome to non-churchgoing Catholics. If you are interested in attending the training event in Nottingham with Bishop Malcolm and Bishop Kieran Conry on Saturday 7th December please speak to Fr Eddy or pick up a copy of the Diocesan newspaper (advert at bottom of front page).

RCIA

The new Deanery RCIA programme commences at St Bernadette's this Monday (16th) at 7.30 pm.

Peace Day

The North Lincolnshire Multifaith Partnership have organised a celebration on Thursday 19th September in recognition of International Peace Day which is celebrated throughout the world at about this time of year. People are invited to gather at the Peace Stone on Cole Street at 4.00 pm where a brief ceremony will be held which will include the participation of a number of children from local schools including St Augustine Webster and St Bernadette's.

Lourdes HCPT

Fr Eddy has just returned from a week at Hosanna House in Lourdes with HCPT Group 524. The group consisted of 34 pilgrims including a number with physical or learning disabilities. Although Fr Eddy does not plan to travel next year, the group is keen to further its links with Holy Souls and is particularly keen to recruit fit, strong, young(ish) helpers, who would be willing to assist pilgrims with disabilities. For further details please speak to Fr Eddy.

Please come and join us in the
Parish Hall for tea and coffee after the 9.30 am Mass

Scunthorpe General Hospital – For the ministration of a Catholic priest contact Fr Eddy Jarosz or Fr Benedict Abuo on (01724) 842197

Legacy

Holy Souls parish recently received a legacy of £10,000 from the estate of the late Patricia Sykes. We pray for the repose of her soul and the souls of all our deceased benefactors. Do please consider the parish when you make your will.

Pro-Life Meeting

Tuesday, 24th September at St Mary The Virgin C of E Church Hall, Hallgate, Cottingham, HU16 4DD, 7.30 pm to 9.00 pm. John Smeaton SPUC's Chief Executive will be launching - in Cottingham - SPUC's Nine Million Children Campaign. Nine million children will have been killed by abortion under the Abortion Act 1967 by the 50th anniversary of its enactment on 27 April 2018. For further details contact Alan Williams on 07946 238862.

Confirmation Pilgrimage

A Pilgrimage to Nottingham is planned for all those who have recently been confirmed and their families. It will include visits to our Cathedral, to the Mary Potter Centre, and also some time to enjoy a treat of your choice. The Pilgrimage will take place on Saturday 28th September, leaving Scunthorpe at 9.00 am and returning about 6.00 pm. Please note that it is a 'family pilgrimage' and all under 18's must be under the supervision of a named adult. Registration forms are available in the sacristy or from Mrs Wattam at St Bede's.

Harvest Produce Sale

After Masses on Sunday 29th September. Please donate anything grown in the garden or made from garden produce ie vegetables, fruits, salad stuff, jams, chutneys, pickles, preserves or anything else you can think of. All donations gratefully received in the parish hall from 5.00 pm Saturday 28th.
