

Readings for The Presentation of The Lord

First Reading

Malachi 3:1-4
 The Lord God says this: Look, I am going to send my messenger to prepare a way before me. And the Lord you are seeking will suddenly enter his Temple; and the angel of the covenant whom you are longing for, yes, he is coming, says the Lord of hosts. Who will be able to resist the day of his coming? Who will remain standing when he appears? For he is like the refiner's fire and the fullers' alkali. He will take his seat as refiner and purifier; he will purify the sons of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, and then they will make the offering to the Lord as it should be made. The offering of Judah and Jerusalem will then be welcomed by the Lord as in former days, as in the years of old. The Word of the Lord.

Ps: 23.7-10

[R]: Who is the king of glory? It is the Lord.

Second Reading

Hebrews 2:14-18
 Since all the children share the same blood and flesh, Jesus too shared equally in it, so that by his death he could take away all the power of the devil, who had power over death, and set free all those who had been held in slavery all their lives by the fear of death. For it was not the angels that he took to himself; he took to himself descent from Abraham. It was essential that he should in this way become completely like his brothers so that he could be a compassionate and trustworthy high priest of God's religion, able to atone for human sins. That is, because he has himself been through temptation he is able to help others who are tempted. The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! The light to enlighten the Gentiles and give glory to Israel, your people. Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 2:22-40
 When the day came for them to be purified as laid down by the Law of Moses, the parents of Jesus took him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord - observing what stands written in the Law of the Lord: Every first born male must be consecrated to the Lord - and also to offer in sacrifice, in accordance with what is said in the Law of the Lord, a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons. Now in Jerusalem there was a man named Simeon. He was an upright and devout man; he looked forward to Israel's comforting and the Holy Spirit rested on him. It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death until he had set eyes on the Christ of the Lord. Prompted by the Spirit he came to the Temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus to do for him what the Law required, he took him into his arms and blessed God; and he said: "Now, Master, you can let your servant go in peace, just as you promised; because my eyes have seen the salvation which you have prepared for all the nations to see, a light to enlighten the pagans and the glory of your people Israel." As the child's father and mother stood there wondering at the things that were being said about him, Simeon blessed them and said to Mary his mother, 'You see this child: he is destined for the fall and for the rising of many in Israel, destined to be a sign that is rejected - and a sword will pierce your own soul too - so that the secret thoughts of many may be laid bare.' There was a prophetess also, Anna, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was well on in years. Her days of girlhood over, she had been married for seven years before becoming a widow. She was now eighty-four years old and never left the Temple, serving God night and day with fasting and prayer. She came by just at that moment and began to praise God; and she spoke of the child to all who looked forward to the deliverance of Jerusalem. When they had done everything the Law of the Lord required, they went back to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth. Meanwhile the child grew to maturity, and he was filled with wisdom; and God's favour was with him. The Gospel of the Lord.

Mystery of Faith: We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

Annual Valentine Marriage Mass

Bishop Malcolm will be celebrating the annual "Valentine Marriage Mass" on Sunday 9th February at 3.00 pm at St Barnabas Cathedral, Nottingham. All married couples (and families) are welcome to attend this celebration. An integral part of the Mass includes a renewal of wedding vows before the Bishop. What a beautiful way to celebrate St Valentine's Day, with a renewal of the vows you made on your wedding day.

Parish Statistics

During 2013 Holy Souls saw:

Baptisms - 77

Receptions into Full Communion - 3

Confirmations - 65

First Communions - 40

Marriages - 6

Deaths - 37

The average weekly Mass attendance during the month of October was 613. These numbers include the Polish and Lithuanian communities, and without their presence the statistics (especially for Baptisms) would look very different.

Repository Items

Thanks to Elaine and Paul Hemingway for looking after the repository stall during Deacon Bernard's absence. They have recently stocked up the stall with new items. Elaine and Paul are usually around after Sunday evening Mass and if you are looking to buy something from the stall on a Sunday morning then please ask Deacon Bernard if he is around or else whoever is serving tea and coffee in the Hall will be able to assist you.

Please come and join us in the Parish Hall for tea and coffee after the 9.30 am Mass
