Extraordinary Jubilee of Mercy

Lord Jesus Christ, you have taught us to be merciful like the heavenly Father, and have told us that whoever sees you sees him. Show us your face and we will be saved.

This Week

Sea Sunday - This weekend in Sea Sunday, when the Church prays for all those who live and work at sea. We welcome Steven Willows from the Apostleship of the Sea who will be with us at the 9.30 am and 6.30 pm Masses on Sunday. A second collection will be taken.

Confirmation Programme - A reminder that for the next two sessions we will split up into parish groups and candidates from Holy Souls should come to Holy Souls on Mondays 11th and 18th July at the usual time.

Luddington - The Diocesan Property Department have given their consent to one further celebration of Mass at St Joseph's, Luddington, after which public worship will be suspended for reasons of health and safety pending a definitive decision on the future of the church and the site. Mass will be celebrated on Friday 15th July at 7.00 pm and will be offered in thanksgiving for graces and blessings received over the past 139 years.

Year of Mercy Charitable Donation - Between April and June we enjoyed a series of social celebrations for the Queen's 90th birthday. Although these were not fund-raising events, we did manage to raise £140. In line with our Year of Mercy efforts, this has been donated to two charities that work with prisoners: Storybook Dads, which enables imprisoned parents to record bedtime stories on CD for their children at home and Haven, which provides books such as dictionaries for prisoners undertaking study. Thank you to everyone who helped to make these donations possible.

Fr Daniel Palmer - Next weekend we welcome Fr Daniel who will celebrate the Saturday 5.30 pm Mass and 9.30 am Mass on Sunday.

St Mary's School Brigg - Congratulations to the governors, staff, and pupils of St Mary's School in Brigg who this week celebrated their Golden Jubilee as a school.

Corporal Works of Mercy

One of the corporal works of mercy is to 'welcome the stranger'. Fr Eddy has been in contact with the local Council to ask if there any refugee families that have moved into our area and if there is anything we can do to assist them. In the meantime I am sure people will be aware of an increase nationally in the number of 'hate crimes' where people have been targeted because of their race or nationality. Fortunately things in and around Scunthorpe have, so far been, peaceful but it goes without saying that some people may be feeling a little bit vulnerable and a reassuring word of support and welcome will be much appreciated. Perhaps that could be a very simple but a very practical work of mercy that we could aim to do this week.

Supper night with Quiz

Thursday 28th July, Methodist Chapel Hall, South Street, Roxby. Tickets £6 on sale this weekend or telephone 07542 715929. You are welcome to bring your own soft drinks but please remember that this hall is part of a Methodist Chapel and no alcohol is allowed on the premises.

Help

We are in need of a couple of volunteers to serve tea and coffee in the parish hall after morning Mass on Sunday 31st July. If you can help, please speak to Marie Dowse or Elaine Hemingway.

Apostleship of the Sea

A day for learning more about this wonderful mission of the Church featuring input from Father Colum Kelly. Takes place at the Seafarers Centre in Immingham on Saturday 30th July between 10.30 am and 3.00 pm. Free admission but please bring contribution for a packed lunch. To book a place please contact steven.willows@apostleshipofthesea.org.uk or telephone 07793 488971.

Baptism

A reminder that parents wishing to have a child (under 5 years old) baptised should expect to give three months notice of their intentions. This will enable sufficient time for the parish clergy to get to know them and to see that they are able to fulfil what they will promise during the baptism ceremony about bringing up their child(ren) in the Catholic faith. It will also ensure that the parents will be able to take part in a baptism preparation evening the next one of which will take place after the summer holidays probably during the month of September.

Canon's Ramblings

If you have ever had reason to write to the Diocesan Curial Offices you will have seen that the address is 'Willson House', but have you ever wondered who exactly they are named after? On 30th June I attended a Mass at the Cathedral to pray for Bishop Willson on the 150th anniversary of his death. Robert Willson was born in Lincoln, and he was ordained a priest and served in Nottingham taking responsibility for the construction for the church of St Barnabas in 1844 which would a few years later become the Cathedral of the Diocese of Nottingham. However Fr Willson had in the meantime been appointed Bishop of Hobart, Tasmania, and there he worked hard especially on behalf of prisoners who had been transported there and who laboured under harsh conditions in the penal colonies. Thanks to his efforts transportation to Australia ceased to be a punishment for criminal offences. He is a true 'apostle of mercy' and an example and inspiration for us in this Year of Mercy. May he rest in peace.
